

TRAINER PROFILE KLAUS KUNIGHAM

Career

- Mechanical engineering studies at the Baden-Wuerttemberg Cooperative State University (DHBW), Dipl. Ing (BA).
- 4 years experience as calculation and measurement engineer in Germany and abroad.
- Graduated sport scientist: Physics, sports science and sports psychology studies in Constance and Cologne.
- 5 years freelance in a consulting company.
- Since 1995 trainer and consulting experience, for companies from industry, the service and health sector as well as large family-owned companies.
- Since 2000 own consulting company with several freelancers.
- Since 2005 network partner and trainer at the Management Center Schloss Lautrach.
- Further training in psychodrama, Dr. Rudolf Mraz.
- Contact study at the Baden-Württemberg Cooperative State University to become a business mediator.
- Further training in existential-analytical work on the subject of fear and how to deal with it, Dr. Alfried Längle.
- Specialist instructor for alpine climbing and ski mountaineering, VDKS canoe hiking guide.

Working priorities

- Management and moderation of workshops on organizational development as well as consulting on organizational development issues.
- Change management and support for change processes.
- Team and individual coaching, management and support of team development processes (also with individually designed outdoor activities).
- Seminars on personnel development in the areas of leadership, strategic planning and strategic action in companies.
- Collaboration and communication topics.
- Mediation between people, in groups and between organizations.
- Project management und project coaching.

Languages

- German
- English

Klaus Kunigham
info@kunigham.de
+49 1522 / 19 30 32 5